As we look back on our proud heritage, we come into a deeper appreciation of the present and the future which looms large before us. The days pass into months; the months into years. Thus, we come into a realization that . . .

"The years teach much which the days never know."

Emerson

The pursuit of knowledge takes place . . . in the privacy of a dorm room, in the broad lap of nature, in the classroom, or in the quiet of the library.

Research plays an important part in any college curriculum . . . The spoken word comes alive on tape, the meaning of life becomes more real through experiment, and the achievements of professors enhance the academic atmosphere.

The cultural life of our campus is enriched by guest artists in concert, by student produced operas, or by the untiring devotion of a dedicated maestro.

The show goes on . . . with the application of make-up by careful hands, with the last minute polishing of a play-to-be, or with the thrill which comes from a superb performance.

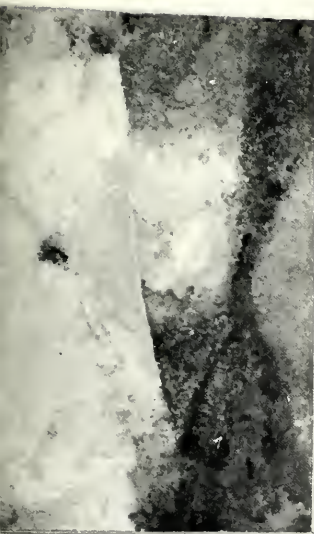

Creativity is . . . concentrated work at the easel, skillful handling of the potter's wheel, the inspiration of quiet contemplation, or an appreciation of the finished products by others.

Diversified faiths are united on a denominational campus . . . as students worship in a large congregation, as they meditate with friends, or as they pause at noon day for spiritual renewal.

The ordinary routine of our college life was spiced with such events as the appearance of Kingston Trio, student talent, the fun of an All-Campus party, or the excitement of our first Winter Carnival.

Physical activity of a college community is characterized by the rough and tumble of an intramural football game, by the spirit of inter-collegiate competition, or by the sweet reward of victory.

Student participation means . . . guidance from effective student leaders, singing one's heart out for first place, the thrill of Freshman Week, or the excitement of talent competition in the Miss University Pageant.

ORGANIZATIONS

SGA

THE EXECUTIVE POWER of the Student Government Association is vested in the President. He serves as a connecting link between the students and the college administration, presides at all SGA meetings, and delivers the welcome address at Convocation. The President also initiates legislation and works hard to carry out his election platform of activities and ideas.

The Vice-President is in charge of all elections. The Secretary-Treasurer handles the records. This year the Reporter is chairman of the Publicity Committee, while the Chaplain is chairman of the Chapel-Film Committee.

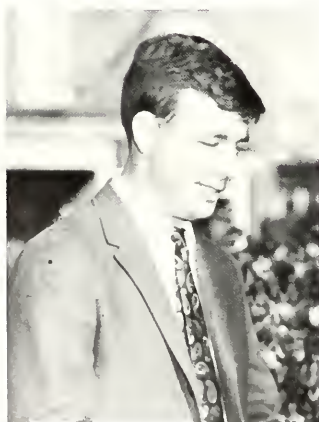

SGA officers, elected in the spring, must have a 1.5 average, be a Junior or Senior, and have a sincere interest in the improvement of student life.

MOLDS NEW TRADITIONS . . .

THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH of the SGA functions as the Student Council. Composed of class, dormitory, and other student representatives, the Council meets once each week to discuss student problems and ideas for the improvement of the college community.

Committee work plays an important role in the smooth functioning of an active Council. A chairman who is a member of the Council works closely with student committeemen on standing committees which include the Library Committee, the Cafeteria Committee, and the Athletic-School Spirit Committee. Committees also are appointed by the President to handle special events and matters of student concern.

This year can well be characterized as a YEAR OF FIRSTS for the SGA—Big Name Entertainment, a Winter Carnival, Class-sponsored All Campus Parties and Chapel Programs, and participation in the Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony. A Talent Show with a "new" look, the Miss University Pageant—held off campus for the first time, and a Film Festival in conjunction with the Art Department are among the innovations introduced by the SGA.

COURT HEARS PARKING CASES...

THE JUDICIAL BRANCH of the SGA is composed of a Chief Justice and five Associate Justices. Appointed by the President, the Court members must be Juniors or Seniors and have a 1.5 average. The Court upholds the Constitution, hears cases concerning violations of Student Council actions, and hears cases of student cheating and discipline.

Expanding and reorganizing a newspaper takes months of planning and policy making. With the move to new offices in the Student Union Building, the CARDINAL AND CREAM provides news, education, amusement, entertainment, and editorial opinion for its readers.

It has been the paper's objective to inspire students and improve the school through personal involvement, through challenge and through opportunity for service.

With roots established by its editors and advisor, we have become a newspaper which speaks for sincerity, truth, accuracy, impartiality, fair play and decency. These things make our school and our paper something of which we are proud.

Future tradition evolves from present action. Since Chi Omega's founding at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, on April 5, 1895, Chi Omega's have acted to perpetuate their ideals and standards. Upsilon is no exception. The year 1965-66 will go down as another year of Upsilon action.

Chi Omega inspires each sister to reach her ideal — the educated, serving woman. Sisters who were selected for Hypatia and Alpha Chi include Sherry Wallace, Kay Ferree, Diane Jacobs, Sue Sullivan, Gail Stewart, and Martha Campbell. Kay Ferree and Sherry Wallace hold membership in Sigma Alpha Iota, the national honorary music fraternity, and Patsy Patton and Beverly Davidson belong to Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatics fraternity. Four sisters were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities: Sherry Wallace, Carol Lawrence, Brenda Matthews, and Diane Mayhew.

Chi Omegas participate actively in Student Government. Sisters on the Student Council are Sue Sullivan, secretary; Gail Stewart, reporter; Brenda Matthews, and Diane Jacobs. Melba Montgomery serves on the Student Court. Diane Jacobs and Mary Kathryn Stinson were elected as secretaries of their classes. Jones Hall dorm officers are Sherry Wallace, Gail Reeves, and Martha Campbell. Gail Stewart is president, and Martha Campbell is secretary of the campus-wide dorm council.

Their best in campus life is given by the Chi Omegas. Among those receiving honors are Brenda Matthews, Jane Matthews, and Leigh Lucky who led school spirit as Cheerleaders. Linda McKinnie was a Sophomore Escort. Brenda Matthews was voted the Senior Most Likely to Succeed. Queens and Sweethearts are numerous—Carol Patterson, SAE Queen; Marie Dalton, Adams Hall Sweetheart; Jennie Lee McMillan, Freshman Queen; Judy Coffman, U Club Sweetheart. Diane Jacobs reigned as Homecoming Queen; members of her court include Marie Dalton, Jane Matthews, and Brenda Matthews. Carrying on the Chi Omega tradition of beauty plus brains and talent was Kathy Daws, Miss University, and her maids, Marie Dalton and Jan Hanna. Seven Campus Favorites are Chi Omegas: Carol Lawrence, Sue Sullivan, Gail Stewart, Brenda Matthews, Diane Jacobs, Kathy Daws, and Jane Matthews.

Athletics claim the talents of Chi Omegas also. Linda McKinnie, Jan Hanna, and Ann McKinnie won the first Turkey Meet Relays. In volleyball, we ranked second.

Chi Omega Fraternity means love and service to sisters. To extend service to others, Chi Omegas inaugurated a special Christmas Kindness. Upsilon "adopted" Beverly Moss, an orphan from the Baptist Childrens' Home in Memphis. We brought her to our Christmas party and surrounded her with gifts, good food, warmth, and laughter. Upsilon will support her "little sister" through letters, gifts, and vacation visits as Beverly grows up.

Our individual actions, honors, services, and names will blend together as the years go by, but Upsilon action in '65-'66 has extended the Chi Omega traditions of friendship, service, and culture into a "symphony of high purposes and ideals, in which there is no discordant note."

Beta Omega of Zeta Tau Alpha has found a new meaning of love, sisterhood, and fraternity during the present school year. Indeed, this time will be remembered as a successful year in every area of fraternity life.

In service to others . . . Zetas contributed to national and local philanthropic projects.

In fun and fellowship . . . Zetas enjoyed a gay swirl of parties spaced throughout the year.

In campus activities . . . Zetas compiled an enviable record of offices held and honors won. In student government, Cheryl Bates was secretary, Freshman Class; Peggy Woods, Carol Roberts, and Roberta Tamble were student council representative, secretary, and treasurer, Sophomore Class; Betty Bridgewater Moser was student council representative, Junior Class; and Kay Gardner was Senior Class secretary. Other student government representatives were Roberta Tamble, Martha Jane Hawks, and Barbara Hobock.

In the area of honoraries, four Zetas were officers in Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music fraternity; Sallie Graham, president; Linda Martindale, treasurer; Kay Gardner, chaplain; and Bernadette Gaucher, social chairman. Mildred Hammill served as vice-president of Hypatia; other members of the organization were Kay Gardner and Linda Martindale. Re-elected to Alpha Chi were Kay Gardner, Mary Winfield, Mildred Hammill, and Linda Martindale.

Miss Union, Ann Breeden, and three of her four class escorts were Zetas: Freshman, Cheryl Bates; Betty Moser, Junior; Kay Gardner, Senior. Zeta Campus Favorites include Betty Moser, Kay Gardner, Ann Breeden, and Carol Roberts. Zeta Sweethearts are Bobbie Irwin, Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl; Betty Moser, Sweetheart of Alpha Tau Omega; and Carol Roberts, Ellis Hall Sweetheart. Cheryl Lloyd and Rosie Houseworth were chosen maids to Miss Union University; Cheryl was also included among the Homecoming royalty and was a Varsity Cheerleader along with Ann Breeden.

Seven out of eight Zetas in the Senior Class were elected to Who's Who. Ann Breeden, Carolyn Jernigan, Kay Gardner, Mildred Hammill, Mary Winfield, and Sallie Graham were chosen this year; and Linda Martindale was included in the 1964 edition.

Many Zetas participated in fine arts productions. Sherrilyn Cole starred in "The Miracle Worker"; Rita Baskin and Loretta Matthews also were in the cast. Sharon Jackson and Sherrilyn Cole were also in the spring productions. Sallie Graham and Kay Gardner starred in Opera Workshop Productions. Bernadette Gaucher, Kay Gardner, Sallie Graham, and Linda Martindale toured with the Union University Singers; and the latter three were chosen for the U.U. Madrigal Singers.

Ann Breeden, Kay Gardner, and Martha Jane Hawks served on the Inter-Fraternity Council; and Carolyn Jernigan was president of the Student National Education Association.

Journalism enthusiasts included Carol Roberts and Linda Martindale, who are circulation manager and copy editor for the CARDINAL AND CREAM. Working on the LEST WE FORGET staff were class editor, Roberta Tamble, and her assistant, Sharon Jackson; activities editor, Martha Jane Hawks, plus Judy Fesmire, Janet Bain, and Elaine Holley.

Besides so many individual honors, Zeta teamwork and sisterhood won a first place in the BSU All-Sing, a second place plaque at the Winter Carnival, and a season's championship in Intramural Volleyball.

In sharing joys and sorrows, in learning discipline through responsibility and leadership, in songs and laughter, Zetas have experienced the real sisterhood that will stand the tests of time.

Lambda Chi Alpha ideals emphasize adaptability, co-operation, loyalty, truth, justice, honor, industry, Christianity, patriotism, morality, learning and fraternity. During the 1965-66 school year, Lambda-Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha at Union has endeavored to utilize these ideals in the growth of the fraternity both on and off the campus. The striving for these goals has been evidenced by the many places of leadership held and the honors won by Lambda Chis on campus during the year.

Taking executive positions in various classes were Buddy McMillin, Senior Class President; Harry Raney, Senior Class Student Council Representative and Barry McLean, Junior Class President. Barry McLean also served as President of the Prince-Davis Science Club. Serving the Nestor Club as President was Everette Wright. Also included in this group of the twelve top scholastic men on campus was John Prince. Alpha Chi, National honorary fraternity, claimed Everette Wright. John Prince and Hugh Callens are members of Phi Mu Alpha, national music fraternity. The Interfraternity Council had as its Vice-President, Harry Raney. Charles Barnette edited the Cardinal and Cream while Bob Anderson was Assistant editor. Harry Raney was editor of Lest We Forget, with Earl Deusner serving as copy editor.

Several campus honors bestowed this year were captured by Lambda Chis. Harry Raney and Everette Wright were listed in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Wright was elected Senior Boy Most Likely to Succeed by the student body, while Raney was a Senior Class Escort to Mr. and Miss Union.

Since its founding in 1909, Lambda Chi Alpha has grown until today it is one of the top fraternities in the nation. The open motto of Lambda Chi, "Naught Without Labor," indicates the determination and hard work of its members.

Tennessee Eta of SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

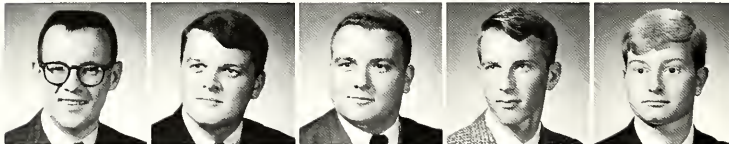

Tennessee Eta of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, founded 110 years ago, can justly lay claim to a heritage rich in tradition, ideals, and that nebulous term "brotherhood," unexplainable in its fullest sense, yet in every way real within the hearts of the men who proudly wear her name. This right was not easily won. From the very beginning her men had to overcome tragedy—the tragedy of the death of a founding father, the tragedy of a chapter which lay stunned in the ashes of a Civil War, the tragedy of disappointment in a way of life. Out of this tragedy there arose, like the Phoenix, that fire in the breast of brothers which cannot be reduced to ashes—a fire which surpasses time and criticism, a fire which has brought Sigma Alpha Epsilon to the enviable position it holds in the year 1966. Of this we are rightly proud.

This pride must now more than ever be fostered. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Tennessee Eta, and indeed, the entire Greek system, faces a tremendous challenge. We face a decade of instability, uncertainty, and perhaps frustration. We must adjust to a changing nation, a changing world, a new kind of education, and a changing social environment. We must fight an increasing depersonalized and dehumanized college world. As always our critics are many and stand poised at our backs.

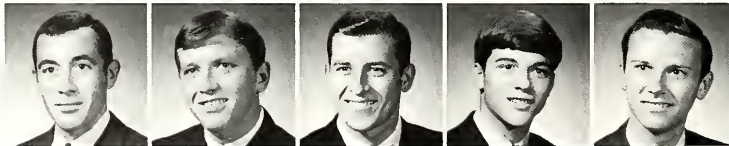

Tennessee Eta pledges to meet this challenge. We shall meet it with our most vital weapon, the love of a Brother; and we have no fear that we shall sustain. We, this year, like our founding fathers lost a Brother. Gone is the grip of his hand, his warmth; but he lives on, and our bond is deepened. In a similar manner will we meet our problems—those of our society and of our own making. We realize our responsibility, yet we have "no fears for the future."

The 1965-66 Bulldogs, although playing a much tougher schedule than ever before, have shown a strong détermination and have represented Union extremely well throughout the entire season. The Bulldogs finished the season with a 13-13 record. With a 5-3 conference mark, they captured second place in the Western Division of the VSAC. The Bulldogs seven game winning streak tied the past record for the longest winning streak.

Bulldogs VSAC Runners-Up

Leading the 1965-66 Bulldogs are co-captains Jeff Richey and Larry Alvey. Richey broke the Union scoring record for a four-year-career with 1694 points and broke the single season record with 630. Before coming to Union, Jeff played ball at Crab Orchard, Illinois, where he holds every record in the Crab Orchard books. Since coming to Union, Richey has been named to the All-Conference team three times, and again this year was selected as the Most Valuable Player in the Conference.

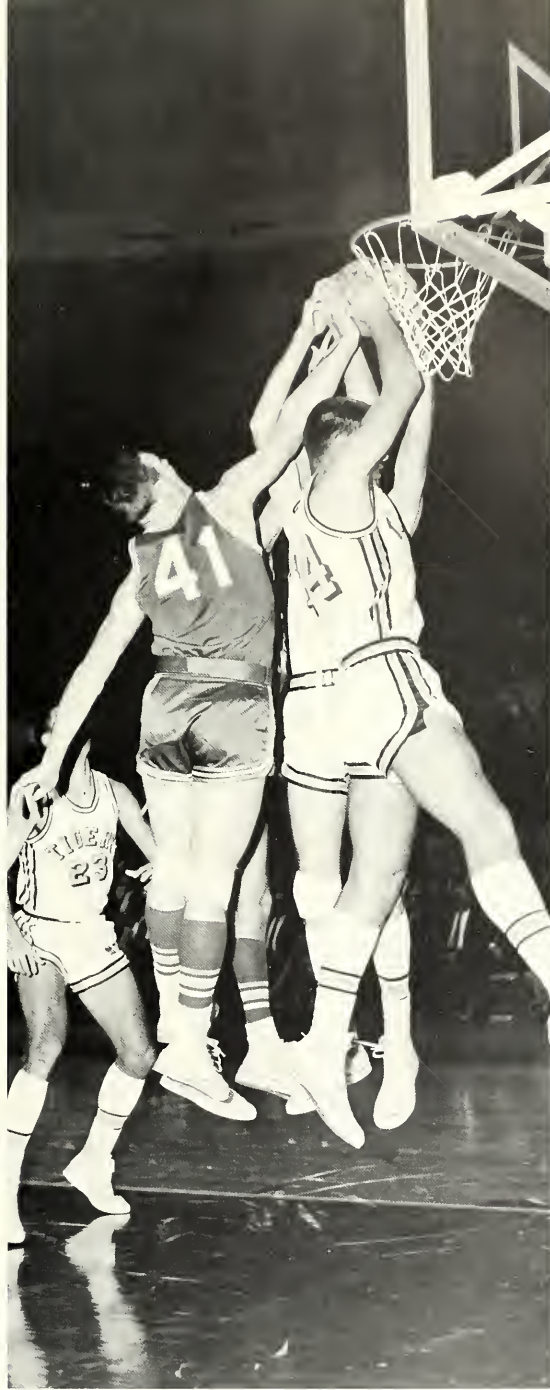

"Mr. Dependable," as his teammates call Larry, is considered one of the best "big men" in college basketball. Having established a rebound record with 27 in one game, Alvey is Union's number one rebounder. Larry averages 14.5 rebounds and 16 points per game. Turning in his usual excellent performance, Larry won the Charles Shuler Award in the 1965 Homecoming game.

The Bulldogs determined effort in the VSAC Tournament paid off as the team received the Runners-up Trophy and the Sportsmanship Trophy. In addition, the Bulldogs placed Jeff Richey, Larry Alvey, and Steve Woodard on the All-Tournament Team.

Rounding out the Bulldog starting five were Steve Woodward, Dennis Wilson, and Dave Gray. Although small for a college ballplayer, Steve proved to be a threat more than once. As the Bulldogs' playmaker and defensive ace, Steve did his best while on the court.

Dave Gray, a sophomore, developed into a strong rebounder and was a definite asset to the Bulldog lineup. Sophomore Dennis Wilson worked his way into a starting guard position early in the season and never relinquished it. His ballhandling ability and quickness greatly aided the Bulldogs' attack.

Intramurals Inspire Competition

Intramural season brings Greek organizations and Independents into competition among themselves. Points are given to first, second, and third place winners in each sport. At the end of the season the points are counted, and the group having attained the most is presented a trophy.

Boys' Intramurals encompass the sports of football, basketball, volleyball, and softball. It also includes bowling, ping-pong, tennis, and cross-country. A special feature of the intramural program this year was the Turkey Meet. In the girls' race of one-half mile, the prize was a dressed chicken; in the boys' mile run, the prize was a dressed turkey.

*The days have passed.
We have experienced much.
LEST WE FORGET—1966 has become a reality.*

Within the covers of this book is contained a record of our days as collegiates.

We, as students, have welded new friendships. We have gained new insights. We have established patterns for the future.

Since the publication of the first LEST WE FORGET in 1904, forty-nine volumes have been placed on the shelves of University history. Ours, the fiftieth volume, will take its rightful place among its predecessors—reflective of golden moments of a golden year.

Expanded in concept, contemporary in design and approach, the 1966 LEST WE FORGET stands alone.

Now as then, echoing down the halls of time the words of Rudyard Kipling yet resound:

*"The tumult and the shouting dies—
The Captains and the Kings depart—
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!"*
